THREE ARE DEAD

Loss of Life By Flood at Waimea, This Island.

An Old Native Woman Went With a Bridge-Pond and Fish Rushed Into the Sea—Worst Yet.

News from Waimea, a place about five miles from Waialua, this island, came by stage yesterday morning, telling of the storm on Sunday and recounting the loss of three lives. A letter from a correspondent contains the following:

"You had hardships in Horulu, during the storm but we down here in Waimea with our 40 or 50 people, can discount you."

"On Sunday afternoon, there was a sudden swelling of the Waimea stream. The waters rose so suddenly that people hardly had time to realize what had happened before the deluge was upon them. The farm houses of Wm. Rathburn and Andrew Cox, fences, sheds, trees of all kinds, including coconut and coffee, pigs, chickens, ducks and a variety of other things, were swept down in a mass. The Waimea bridge was torn away while the foot bridge at Anahulu and two double bridges at Waialua, met the same fate. Four Chinamen were caught up with all their belongings, including 70 chickens and a number of ducks and pigs. Luckily the men were swept into the top of a tree where they remained until the waters receded.

"Mrs. Hookaea and her child, and Ke-pola, an old native woman, were drowned. Ke-pola was swept along by the water and, upon reaching the bridge, grasped it and held on. She might have saved herself had not the bridge given way just at that time. She went down with the wreck and, up to the time of writing, her body had not been recovered, nor had those of Mrs. Hookaea and her child.

"The pond near Waimea, known as Lokoea, is now dry land. The water with its wealth of fish, was swept out and, in its place, was deposited a lot of drift and mud. When the waters receded, the pond dried up so that now one may walk across without any trouble.

"Deputy Sheriff Cox and his men were on hand and rendered all the assistance possible under the circumstances.

"School Agent Anderson who has been here nearly 40 years, says he has never experienced such a thing during that time.

"The loss to property is estimated at about $20,000.

"After the worst was over, the Road Board met and decided to hire canoes for the purpose of crossing the stream. There is no other way to get across."

Captain Mosher of the Kaena reports havoc played by the storm at Waialua. Both bridges are down and have drifted in sections off Puuiki. The place where the steamers go in at Waialua is filled with mud allowing of no entrance whatever. The place where the Kaena anchored last time has but 11 inches of water now. The Kaena brought back no freight whatever.

Off to the Klondike.

Last Saturday evening, Mr. D. W. Scott, son of J. F. Scott, former Deputy Inspector of Schools, was pleasantly surprised at Kealia hall, Kanae. The affair was managed by a company of ladies, under the leadership of Mrs. D. P. Lawrence. Among those who contributed to make the party a success were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Spaulding, Dr. and Mrs. Huges, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Makee, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Lawrence, Miss M. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hundley, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon, Herr M. Nelle, Mrs. Carter of Lihue, Mr. D. Prigge, Mr. D. F. Greany, Mr. J. W. Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Toms, Mrs. C. R. McVeigh, Miss T. Toms, Mr. and Mrs. J. Foster. Mr. Scott was the recipient of many alohas toward his near departure for the Coast, where he is to join Mr. W. Easie and party in their search for Klondike gold.

Millinery Opening.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, Miss Killeen will hold her spring opening of millinery. Miss Killeen has just returned from San Francisco, and has brought with her all the latest crazes in hats, both in styles and trimmings.

She is accompanied by Madame Skidmore, formerly with Johnson, the celebrated New York milliner and well known to Honoluluites, who periodically visit San Francisco, who will remain here indefinitely, assisting at the Easter opening. Madame Skidmore will give her personal attention to the trimming department.

Good Fellow Gone.

Harry Ingham, the snare drummer and bell soloist of the Government band, left by the Alameda last night to visit his mother at Seattle and incidentally to try an inoculation of the Klondike fever. Mr. Ingham had been in Honolulu a couple of years. All who know the light-hearted, good natured young fellow esteem him as a loyal and worthy friend and will hope that he can see his way clear to make good his half promise of coming back. Mr. Ingham was a great favorite of Captain Berger, the band leader, and was popular with all his companions. Mr. Ingham is a printer as well as a band man and was well liked by all the typographical fraternity here.

Kaumakapili Concert.

There is to be a fine concert in Kaumakapili church Saturday night, for the benefit of the Kalihi and Moanalua churches. The following will take part: Kawaihooia Seminary, Kamehameha Glee Club, Kamehameha Girls' School, Kawaihooia club, Hennessey and Kaal (mandolin and guitar), Misses H. Desha and Lydia Ahelo (vocal duet), Miss Rosina Shaw (solo), James McGuire (solo) and a number of others.

Kauai Floods.

The James Makee reports a bad state of affairs on Kauai as a result of the recent storm. On Saturday night, ka-naianas say they experienced the worst weather in many years. The telephones were all beaten down and most of the small bridges were washed away. The Hanapepe bridge is completely down and the one at Waimea is turned up and unfit for use.

What Is the Meaning Of a Guarantee ?

It is confidence in the article you sell, sufficient to warrant you to stand by it under all circumstances.

That's the confidence we have in our goods, and that's why we are not afraid to stand by them, not only before, but after they are sold.

All other goods perish, or are consumed in a short time and the dealers' responsibility soon ceases, but a choice piece of Jewelry or Silverware lasts forever, and the Jeweler's responsibility with it.

It is to your advantage to purchase such, where the guarantee is your safeguard, where great distance does not make the guarantee valueless to you, and where it is the honest endeavor to give satisfaction in every instance.

OUR STOCK

Certainly offers advantages not to be found elsewhere in the city of choice goods, entirely new, and absolutely new in design. We know the prices are right.

A Model Plant is not complete without Electric Power, thus dispensing with small engines.

Why not generate your power from one CENTRAL Station? One generator can furnish power to your Pump, Centrifugals, Elevators, Pumps, Railways and Hoists; also, furnish light and power for a radius of from 15 to 30 miles.

Electric Power being used, saves the labor of hauling coal in your field, also water, and does away with high-priced engineers, and only has one engine to look after in your mill.

Where water power is available it costs nothing to generate Electric Power.

THE HAWAIIAN ELECTRIC COMPANY is now ready to furnish Electric Plants and generators of all descriptions at short notice, and also has on hand a large stock of Wire, Chandlers and Electrical Goods.

All orders will be given prompt attention, and estimates furnished for Lighting and Power Plants; also, attention given to House and Marine Wiring.
